company info

Due to our expanding business volume, we are seeking new team members to join and contribute to our passionate, enthusiastic, friendly, direct, demanding but always professional working environment.

We welcome those with some industry experience as well as those who are looking to change career direction. Recruitment is a sales role so you must be confident, self-motivated and prepared to give whatever it takes to achieve the best results. Your strong client-facing communication skills and your passion to succeed will ensure your success. We are driven by achieving the best we possibly can. Achievement is important to us. We value honesty, integrity, open communication, sharing information, listening and learning. In return you will be respected, valued and supported to achieve your ambitions.

Randstad Turkey has established its first office in Istanbul and started its operations in Turkey on May, 2006. In the near future, Randstad will be establishing new branches at premier cities of Turkey.
